Blue Sage Band -who we are...

Featuring banjo, bass, fiddle, mandolin and guitar - the Blue Sage Band is a high energy acoustic folk ensemble specializing in bluegrass, folk, western and acoustic rock.

Band members

The Band

The music of the Blue Sage Band revolves around the repertoire of folk singer Mike Iverson. One of the best known clawhammer banjoists, Mike also plays bluegrass banjo with the band.

On upright bass fiddle, we have Shauna Iverson. It's Shauna's driving bass lines that provide the power to the Blue Sage sound. Rocking out on stage, audiences find Shauna as much fun to watch as to listen to!

Heather Blaisdell brings the rich heritage of Celtic and American fiddle traditions to the band. Heather's unique improvisations add an indispensable texture to our sound.

Shaundra Cragun is an exceptional singer, songwriter and guitarist. We are proud to showcase many of her original songs in every Blue Sage performance.

Award winning multi-instrumentalist Hudson Bosworth is no stranger to the bluegrass world. We feel fortunate to have him in the band on mandolin and guitar.

Versatile folk, bluegrass & acoustic rock

Blue Sage can perform in a variety of configurations for different events. Solo, duo, trio, quartet, or quintet. Here you can see Mike doing a solo show for the Smithsonian Institute at one of their traveling exhibitions.

We host old-time barn dances for many events for which we are hired to play (especially weddings). We use excellent callers, all of whom are very good at getting non-dancers on the floor and having a good time!

Blue Sage might just be the perfect wedding and convention band!

Not only can morph into what ever type of band you need (bluegrass, classic 70s, acoustic rock, folk, pop, cowboy, etc.) - we can also dress the part! Western, semi-formal, nice casual, 1800s, 1930s, steam punk?

We can do that!

Blue Sage - why we are the right band for you!

Our instrumentation is based on folk and bluegrass stylings, but our songs are drawn from a variety of musical genres including classic folk-rock, bluegrass, western, and pop!

As Blue Sage performances feature a wide variety of styles, we are very easy on the ears!

We pride ourselves in being personable and adaptable and we always try to accommodate the wishes of those who have hired us.

We always dress appropriately. Our costuming is usually "nice casual" but changes if the presenter wants a different theme (cowboy, pioneer, semi-formal, etc.).

The music of Blue Sage appeals to all age groups.

We can provide our own professional quality sound reinforcement, which you are welcome to use for announcements.
